TABOR COLLEGE TASMANIA

What Tabor can offer Chaplains in 2008

Timetabled Units

School Chaplaincy Theory

This unit provides guiding principles for school chaplaincy in State Secondary and Primary Schools. It prepares students to provide care and support in the context of human relationships, and assists them to understand trends in contemporary Australian youth culture. Topics will include: current trends in youth culture, bullying, suicide, serving the school community, relating to school staff, dealing with crises in a school setting, communicating the Gospel to unchurched youth, reporting to churches and support groups, the role of Schools Ministry Group and chaplaincy conferences, and the importance of training and ongoing self-care.

Semester 1

This is a combined north/south class meeting as follows:

1-2 March	in Launceston
5 April	in Hobart
26 April	in Launceston
10 May	in Hobart
24 May	in Launceston

School Chaplaincy Practice

In this unit, students explore the daily role of a chaplain in a school, experiencing first hand the joys and frustrations of chaplaincy. Students shadow a chaplain and are encouraged to question, challenge, reflect on and consider the myriad of ways of approaching chaplaincy. Tutorials provide opportunity for students to demonstrate their knowledge of various situations that arise in a school community, reflect on relevant issues and consider various ways of approaching chaplaincy situations.

Semester 2

This is a combined north/south class meeting for tutorials on 3 Saturdays between Hobart and Launceston – dates to be advised.
